

It is my opinion that the proposed 60 Meter, 5 Mhz, band will often provide for more reliable communications than either the 3.5 or 7 Mhz bands. In the case of Emergency Communications I believe that mode segmentation is necessary since the Narrow band modes, CW, RTTY etc. are easily interfered with by the wide band modes, AM, SSB etc., especially at the slower speeds required by the current regulations.